ASIA PACIFIC AFFAIRS COUNCIL
WEATHERHEAD EAST ASIAN INSTITUTE

The Asia Pacific Affairs Council Journal is calling for submissions!

Theme: Future is Asian

Highlighting a real shift in the world's center of gravity, the 2021 Asia Pacific Affairs Council Journal will focus on the dynamic role of Asia in public health and emergency preparedness, economic security in humanitarian affairs, trade and development, energy, cyber conflict, and cycles of kinetic conflict in the East and Southeast Asia region.

All Columbia University students are invited to submit opinion pieces, interviews, photo essays, travel journals, expository essays, research summaries, and more. If you are interested in contributing to the 2021 issue of the Asia Pacific Affairs Council Journal, please revert to this email with brief proposal.

If you have any questions, please email the Asia Pacific Affairs Council Journal editorial team at: apac.journal.2020@gmail.com

Key Dates:

Proposal Submission: January 6, 2021

First Drafts: January 20, 2021

Final Drafts/Edits: February 6, 2021

Proofreading and designing: February 6 to February 28, 2021

Printing: March 10, 2020

Launch Party: TBD

Submission Guidelines:

- I Submissions may include Op-Ed pieces, photo essays, travel experiences, interviews, and news/current events.
- II Submissions may reflect original research, but should generally not be full academic research papers unless they are summations or distillations of this research.
- III Submission length may vary, but should generally be between 1,200-1,400 words for feature articles. Op-Eds of ~800 words will also be considered.
- IV Submissions should illuminate the theme/topic of that semester's issue; however, unrelated submissions will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- V Submissions, while subject to editing and fact-checking by the editorial board, must already include Chicago style citation in order to be considered for publication.
